

DAVID P. MONTGOMERY FIELD DEDICATION

JOIN US FOR A SPECIAL EVENT
HONORING PHILLIES CHAIRMAN
DAVID P. MONTGOMERY

Daisy Field in Roxborough is being renamed in honor of David P. Montgomery, chairman of the Philadelphia Phillies. Montgomery began his career with the Phillies in 1971, working in the team's sales office selling season and group tickets. He advanced to positions of marketing director, sales director, executive vice president, and eventually club president.

With 48 years of service to the Phillies, Montgomery has contributed a great deal to the organization and the City of Philadelphia. In partnership with the Phillies and Councilman Curtis Jones, Jr., Philadelphia Parks & Recreation is excited to celebrate the renaming of Montgomery's childhood field.

We hope you can join us on Saturday for this very special event.
